WALLINGFORD.

The Mystery of Wallace Perkins' Death-Coroner Mix Investigates-Theory That Perkins Was Intoxicated and Laid Down Upon the Track-General News of the Town-The Hail Stones of Saturday.

There seems to be no definite clue to the mysterious death of Walter C. Perkins in Yalesville Friday night. Coroner Mix was here Saturday and with Medical Examiner McGaughey investigated the case as thoroughly as the facts would allow, but did not make any report while here. The last seen of Perkins alive, as near as could be learned from authentic witnesses, was in Hanover at 8:30 Friday evening. How he came to be lying on the track where he, was was found is a mystery that promises fair never to be fully explained. Undertaker Griswold stated Saturday evening that the hour was set for the funeral at 2:80 o'clock Sunday afternoon and as he had the permit for the burial it would take place, although the coroner had not given the customary notice. The deceased was a member of Silver City council, O. U. A. W., of Meriden, and his widow will receive $2,000 from the same. Coroner Mix was interviewed at his home in New Haven last evening and said he had not arrived at anything conclusive as to how Perkins came to be on the track, but the inference was strong that Perkins got on the track while intoxicated. The coroner added that inebriated men seemed to have an uncontrollable propensity to lle down upon railroad tracks.

A heavy shower, accompanied by lively fall of hallstones, struck here Saturday afternoon. The appearance of the sky in the north was terrible to be hold and reminded many of the dreadful day of the tornado. The clouds inky blackness and the merchants had to light up their stores on account of the darkness. The lightning had a peculiar reddish tinge and the general outlook was one that will not soon be forgotten.

FOR TWO DAYS.

Horse Guard's Tournament in September. The arrangements for the two-day cournament to be given by the Second company, Governor's Horse Guard, on September 2 are being gotten into shape. The prizes will be of unusual value and some of the events will have for a first prize articles worth several hundred dollars. The company contemplates taking a trip in a body to the next Paris exposition and the tournament is one of the schemes it has to raise money for this purpose. The affair promises to be quite an event from an athletic standpoint.

Pedestrians Have the Right of Way. To the Editor of the JOURNAL AND COURIER As a pedestrian a question arises in my mind in regard to the right of way on street crossings between our citizens on foot and the small army of cyclists Having more than once of late narrowly escaped being run into while rossing on a public thoroughfare by a cyclist it seems to me some rule should be promulgated in which the rights of pedestrians should be determined. If I am not mistaken all persons driving or on horse back at all crossings are bound to give pedestrians the right of way. Should not the rule apply and be enforced as regards evelists? If not, let us have the whole thing changed and give all carriages the right of way, as is the custom in London and Paris, where pedestrians are arrested if they are run over.

The transfer books of the Connecticut and Passumpsic railroad and Massa-wippi railroad close to-day for the usual dividend of 21/2 per cent., payable August 1. Both these roads were leased January 1, 1887, to the Boston and Lowell railroad for ninety-nine years; the dividends the first ten years were to be 5 per cent. per annum and 6 per cent. for the remaining eighty-nine years. At the time of making the lease the stock was selling at 100; recently the price has been rapidly discounting the expected increase in dividend. The stock was quoted in Boston at 141 bid on Friday, the bid to carry the August dividend. At this price if the stock were now paying 6 per cent., the income on the investment would only be 44 per cent.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Catherine Malone Charged With Stealing Fifty-eight Dollars From Nellie Mc

Catherine Malone, who has been employed as a housemaid by Morris N. Myers of the Connecticut Clothing company, was arrested yesterday by De-tective Sergeant Cowles and locked up, charged with the theft of some English currency and American money from Nellie McMahon, a fellow domestic The Malone woman was subsequently released under bonds of $150 furnished by Mary Curtin.

The story of the alleged thefa is peculiar one. The Malone and McMahon women were both employed as domestics at Mr. Myers' house, 25 Wooster Place. Last Wednesday morning both girls went downstairs into the basement to do the laundry work. While there the McMahon woman said that she had left the door of her room open, and that her purse containing eleven and one-half pounds in English currency and $3 in American money on the bureau and she was afraid some sneak thief would get in and steal the Thursday Myers removed with hi family to his summer cottage at the shore and took Catherine Malone with him to do the work. Prior to going to the shore he discharged the McMahon woman from his employ. Yesterday Sergeant Cowles went to the shore and searched among the Malone woman's effects. In her saichel he found the McMahon woman's purse and in it were one and one-half sovereigns and three one dollar bills. Although the woman stoutly maintained that she was inno-cent, she was placed under arrest and brought to police headquarters in this city. She will be arraigned in the city court this morning. LVARY RAPTIST CHURCH Last Sermon of the Season by Rev. Mr. Potent.

Rev. Mr. Poteat preached his last sermon of the season last evening, taking as a subject, "The Conclusion of the Whole Matter." He summarized the evening sermons of the past ten months and stated the conclusion as follows That the Christian view of the world is the only one possible to thought, and that the Christian experience of life furnishes the only possible peace. The optimist, the pessimist, the Christian, the illusioned, the disillusioned, the triumphant-here are the classes into which men are divided, and the answers which they make to the question is "Is life worth living?" is their only answer. This Mr. Poteat illustrated from ecclesiastics, Tolstol and others. He said his ministry during the past ten months on Sunday evenings had treated but two topics, sin and salva-tion, and the conclusion of the whole matter he summarized in three points-God, reverence, duty.

At the close of the sermon two persons made public confession of accepting Christ

W. T. BULL, late Fullback, Yale Foot Ball Team, writes: "New York, May 10, 1895.

"It was the result of a wager with a friend which caused me to put on my foot ball clothes a week ago and begin kicking 'drops' and 'punts' as though life held no other object. Experience of years had taught me that the sure outcome of so kicking without the usual working up pro-cess meant a lame thigh—in short, an induced inability to kick the ball a foot on the morrow. My friend, however, to decide a discussion as to the merits of different liniments and the like for strains, had induced me to become the trial horse. After kicking hard for a half hour, I underwent a deal of rubbing with SALVAits powers to alleviate stiffness and soreness, my ability to kick would be unimpaired. I did not believe -yet lo and behold, the pungent salve staved off every sign of lameness and the next day I kicked without the slightest discomfort. In consequence I feel bound to admit that SALVA-CEA is a little giant, and a necessity to every athlete as well as an indispensable article in the medicine chest of every household."

There are good reasons why the Yale-Cambridge athletic contest should take place on the Yale field, but perhaps in disease where infection is caused they are not as strong as those that will be advanced in favor of New York. All the arguments that belong to the sentimental side are in favor of having this college contest on the college ground; there are also good material reasons. The Vale field offers excellent facilities for the meeting, and is expected to be the training ground for the Englishmen after their arrival in this country. It probably has discan be obtained.
